A decade designing for film: four consecutive years as art director of the Oscar-qualifying HollyShorts Film Festival, creative director of its first international edition, and poster work named among the world's best film festival posters two years running — with festival environments built across TCL Chinese Theatres, the Egyptian Theatre, Cannes, and London.

EXPERIENCE

HollyShorts Film Festival Art Director

2022 – 2025

Oscar-qualifying festival · TCL Chinese Theatres · Egyptian Theatre · Japan House, Los Angeles

- Owned the complete visual identity of the 19th, 20th, and 21st editions — campaign concept, official posters, billboards, badge and award systems, motion and on-screen graphics, social, and merchandise. Joined as designer (2022); promoted to art director within a year.
- Designed the festival's physical environment end to end: step-and-repeats and red carpets, photo walls, banners, and venue signage — managing large-format print production, fabrication, and installation with vendors across multiple venues opening simultaneously.
- Production design of the live HollyShorts Award Show at the Egyptian Theatre and TCL Chinese Theatres, and of the Alta Global Media Film Summit.
- Designed and developed hollyshorts.com, the festival's official website.
- Campaigns covered by Variety, Deadline, Daily Mail, TimeOut, and AwardsDaily.

HollyShorts London Creative Director

2025

Inaugural international edition · London, UK

- Led creative for the festival's first expansion into a new city: a city-specific identity grounded in the parent brand — poster, branding package, motion graphics, screening visuals, badges, merchandise, and street-level print rollout.

HollyShorts Comedy Art Director · Led Rebrand

2022 – 2025

Formerly Hollywood Comedy Shorts Film Festival · TCL Chinese Theatres

- Art directed the 6th–8th annual festivals; led the 2025 rebrand — new logo, palette, and typography with a full design system spanning print, digital, event environments, and interactive AR activations. Featured by LAist and Broadway World.

Cannes Film Festival Designer / Illustrator

2023 · 2024

Kodak-hosted events · Cannes, France

- Original illustration and poster design for Kodak's events at the 2023 and 2024 festivals.

HDtracks — Chesky Records Lead Designer, Dir. of Marketing

New York

- Led design and marketing for the world's leading hi-res music store, founded by Grammy-winning producers David and Norman Chesky.

Key Art & Identity Freelance

2016 – present

- Theatrical posters: Nice Knives (BAM In Motion), Little Issues (12+ awards), Hallelujah (exec. prod. Spike Lee), Let This Feeling Go, Survived By, Welcome Home.
- Identity: Skyfire Artists talent management; Chop Suey Club gallery, Manhattan; illustration for painter Miles Regis.
